

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. TO THE RIGHT REVEREND BISHOPS,

HAVING already given you our judgment of several things in the Book of Common Prayer, and our desires for the altering of some parts of it, leaving the rest unaltered : we here tender you some of the said alterations, which in our former paper we shewed to be needful ; and some additional forms in Scripture phrase (as near as we well could) suited to the nature of the several parts of worship. The texts are cited in the margin, to justify partly the matter, and partly the phrase. If any be misapplied (which we hope will not be found) we shall be willing, upon information, to retract such misapplication. If some of the Prayers here offered seem of too great a length, the substance of them being allowed, we shall, upon conference and mutual consideration, endeavour to contract them. And whereas his Majesty's Commission doth empower and authorise us to take into our consideration the several Directions, Rules, and Forms of Prayer, and things contained in the Book of Common Prayer: and further addeth, When we shall have drawn our consultations to any resolution and determination, which we shall agree upon as needful or expedient to be done for the altering, diminishing, or enlarging the Book of Common Prayer, or any part thereof, &c. we have here accordingly added some Rules or Directions, as requisite to give light to the whole, shewing when and how those several Prayers shall be used. But if any of those Rules or Directions, upon debate, shall be judged by the Commissioners, unnecessary, or overlong, we shall be very ready to submit either to the alteration or omission of them. And since we, for our parts, do so freely profess not to insist on any thing now or formerly proposed, which shall be manifested to be unmeet; so we humbly crave, and hope for your consent to all the rest: and that these alterations and additions now offered may find your favourable interpretation and acceptance, and may, by our joint consent, be presented to his Majesty; to the end they may obtain his gracious approbation, and the several particulars thereof may be inserted into the several respective places of the Liturgy to which they do belong, and left to the Minister's choice to use the one or the other, according to his Majesty's gracious Declaration concerning ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

ORDINARY PUBLIC WORSHIP
ON THE LORD'S DAY.

The Congregation being reverently composed, let the Minister first crave God's assistance, and acceptance of the Worship to be performed, in these or the like words.

ETERNAL, incomprehensible, and invisible God, infinite in power, wisdom and goodness; dwelling in the light which no man can approach, where thousand thousands minister unto thee, and ten thousand times ten thousand stand before thee, yet dwelling with the humble and contrite, and taking pleasure in thy people: thou hast consecrated for us a new and living way, that with boldness we may enter into the holiest, by the blood of Jesus; and hast bid us seek thee while thou mayest be found. We hearts, and not only with our lips; and worship thee, who art a spirit, in spirit and truth. Let thy word be spoken and heard by us as the word of God. Give us attentive, hearing ears; and opened, believing, understanding hearts: that we may no more refuse thy calls, nor disregard thy merciful, outstretched hand, nor slight thy counsels and reproofs; but be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools. Put thy laws into our hearts, and write them in our minds, and let us be all taught of God. Let thy word be unto us quick and powerful ; a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart ; mighty to pull down strongholds ; casting down imaginations and reasonings, and every high thing that advanceth itself against the knowledge of God ; and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. Let us magnify thee with thanksgiving, and triumph in thy praise. Let us rejoice in thy salvation, and glory in thy holy name. Open thou our lips, O Lord, and let our mouths shew forth thy praise. And let the words of our mouths, and the meditation of our hearts, be acceptable in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

For the right informing and affecting the People, and moving them to a penitent believing Confession, some of these Sentences may be read.

GOD created man in his image. Gen. i. 27.

By one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin ; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Rom. v. 12.

For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. Rom. iii. 23.

God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John iii. 16.

He that believeth on him shall not be condemned : but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God. 18.

And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 19.

For every one that doeth evil, hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 20.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us. Gal. iii. 13.

John iii. 5. Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Matt. xviii. 3. Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Ezek. xxxiii. 11. Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked ; but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways : for why will ye die, O house of Israel ?

Luke xv. 10. I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God, over a sinner that repenteth.

18, 19. I will arise and go to my father, and say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

be the wages of sin ; but yet for the glory of thy mercy hast sent thy Son to be the Saviour of the world, and hast promised forgiveness of sin through his blood, to all that believe in him, and by true repentance turn unto thee, and that whosoever confesseth and forsaketh his sin, shall have mercy : we confess that we are vile and miserable sinners, being conceived in sin ; by nature children of wrath, and transgressors from the womb. All we like sheep have gone astray, and turned every one to his own way. Thou madest us, and not we ourselves. Thou boughtest us with a price, and we are not our own ; and therefore we should have wholly given up ourselves unto thee, and have glorified thee with our souls and bodies, as being thine. What-ever we did, should have been done to thy glory, and to please thee, in the obeying of thy will. But we have displeased and dishonoured thee, and turned from thee, exalting, seeking, and pleasing ourselves. Thou art the judgments ; under thy patience, and in thy sight ; against our consciences, our purposes, and our covenants ; when we were hastening to death and judgment, for which through all our lives we should have prepared. Thou hast commended thy wonderful love towards us in giving thy Son to die for sinners, to reconcile us to thee while we were enemies : and all things being made ready, thou hast sent thy messengers to invite us to come in, preaching to us the glad tidings of salvation, and freely offering us pardon and life in Jesus Christ. But we have made light of it, and neglected this great salvation, and made excuses, or too long delays ; undervaluing our Redeemer, his blood and merits, his offered grace and endless glory ; rejecting his holy doctrine and example, resisting his Spirit, ministers and word. We have sinned, O Lord, against thee, and against our own souls, and are not worthy to be called thy children. We have deserved everlasting wrath. To us belongeth confusion, but mercy and forgiveness to thee. Have mercy upon us, O God, according to the multitude of thy mercies. Heal our souls that have sinned against thee, and enter not into judgment with thy servants. Hide thy face from our sins, and blot out all our iniquities. Cast us not away from thy presence, and avenge not upon us the quarrel of thy covenant.

 Wash us in the blood of the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sins of the world. Accept us in thy beloved Son, who was made a curse for us, and was wounded for our transgressions, that we might be healed by his stripes. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thy face to shine upon us. Give us repentance unto life; cause us to loathe ourselves for all the evils that we have committed. Give us that broken contrite spirit, which thou wilt not despise. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Take out of us the old and strong* heart, and give us a new and tender heart. Give us the Spirit of thy Son, and be our God, and let us be thy people. Enlighten our understandings to know the wonderful things of thy law, the dimensions of thy love in Christ, the mysteries of thy kingdom, and the riches of the glory of thy inheritance in the saints ; and that we may approve the things that are excellent, and may escape the snares of the devil, and may hate every false way. Shed abroad thy love in our hearts by thy Holy Spirit ; and cause us so to love thee, that nothing may separate us from thy love. Put thy fear into our hearts, that we may never depart from thee. Cause us to seek first thy kingdom, and its righteousness, and (as those that are risen with Christ) to seek the things that are above, and to lay up a treasure in heaven ; and let our hearts and conversations be there. Mortify our earthly inclinations and desires. Crucify the world to us, and us unto the world, by the cross of Christ. Cause us to live by faith, and look at the things that are unseen ; and use the world, as not over-using it, seeing the fashion of it passeth away : striving to enter it at the strait gate, and running so as to obtain. Let us no longer live the rest of our time to the lusts of men, but to the will of God ; studying in all things to please thee, and to be accepted of thee. Let us not seek our own wills, but the will of him that called us ; yea, let us delight to do thy will, O God. Let our delight be in thy law, and let us meditate therein day and night. Cause us to deny ungodliness and worldly lusts, and to live soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world ; as obedient children, not fashioning ourselves to the former lusts of our ignorance : but as he that hath called us is holy, let us be holy in all manner of conversation. Cause us to love one another with a pure heart fervently ; forbearing and forgiving one another, if any have a quarrel against another, even as Christ forgave us. Give us the wisdom which is first pure, and then peaceable. In our eyes let a vile person be contemned, but let us honour them that fear the Lord. Cause us to walk circumspectly without offence, and to be zealous of good works ; to love our enemies, and not to give place to wrath ; and in patience to possess our souls. Help us to deny ourselves, and take up our cross, and follow Christ ; esteeming his reproach to be greater riches than the treasures of the world : that, having suffered with him, we may also be glorified with him. Though we must be tempted, help us to overcome, and be faithful unto the death ; and then let us receive that crown of life, through the merits and intercession of Christ Jesus our Lord and only Saviour, in whose comprehensive words we sum up our requests ; saying, as he hath taught us :

OUR Father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name : thy kingdom come, &c.

For the strengthening of faith, and raising the penitent, some of these sentences of the Gospel may be here read.

Hear what the Lord saith to the absolution and comfort of penitent believers. :—

THE Lord your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

If any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous, and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

2 Chron. xxx. 9.
 1 John ii. 2.

Acts xiii. 38, 39. Be it known unto you, men and brethren, that through this man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins ; and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which they could not be justified by the law of Moses.

Rom. v. 20, 21. Where sin abounded, grace did much more abound ; that as sin reigned unto death, even so might grace reign, through righteousness, unto eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 John i. 7, 8, 9. If we walk in the light as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sin, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sin, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Matt. xi. 28, 29, 30. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me ; for I am meek and lowly in heart : and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Rev. xxii. 17. Whosoever will, let him take of the water of life freely.

All that the Father hath given me, John vi. 27.
shall come to me ; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

I will be merciful to their unright- Heb. viii. 12.
eousness, and their sins and iniquities I will remember no more.

Hear also what you must be, and do, for the time to come, if you would be saved :—

Now if any man have not the Spirit of Rom. viii. 9.
Christ, he is none of his.

If any man be in Christ, he is a new 2 Cor. v. 17.
creature ; old things are passed away, behold ! all things are become new.

There is no condemnation to those Rom. viii. 1.
that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For they that are after the flesh, do 5.
mind the things of the flesh ; but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

For to be carnally minded is death, 6.
but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

For the carnal mind is enmity against 7.

God ; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

Rom. viii. 8. So then, they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

13. For if ye live after the flesh ye shall die ; but if through the Spirit ye mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

Gal. v. 19. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these ; adultery, fornication,

20. uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath,

21. strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like : of the which I tell you before, as I have told you in time past, that they which do such things, shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23. meekness, temperance : against such

24. there is no law. And they that are Christ's, have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

Rom. xiii. 13. Let us walk honestly, as in the day ; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying :

but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, Rom. xiii. 14.
and make no provision for the flesh to fulfil the lusts thereof.

world, the love of the Father is not in him.
For all that is in the world, the lust of 16.

is not of the Father, but is of the world.

Enter ye in at the strait gate. For Matt. vii. 13.
wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth
to destruction, and many there be that go in thereat.
Because strait is the gate, and narrow 14.
is the way, that leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

For the grace of God that bringeth Tit. ii. 11.
salvation, hath appeared unto all men, teaching us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly 12.
lusts, we should live soberly, and righteously, and godly, in this present world, looking for 13.
the blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ : who gave himself for us, that he might 14.
redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself a

1 Cor. xv. 58. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Then may be said the 95th, or the 100th Psalm ; or the 84th.

And next the Psalms in order for the day : and Luke iv.16,17,18. next shall be read a chapter of the Old Testament, such as the Minister findeth most seasonable ; or with the liberty expressed in the Admonition before the Second Book of Homilies.

After which may be sung a Psalm, or the Te Deum said : then shall be read a chapter of the New Testament, and then the Prayer for the King and Magistrates. And after that, the 67th, or 98th, or some other Psalm, may be sung or said ; or the Benedictus, or Magnificat. And the same order to be observed at the Evening worship, if time allow it.

Next after the Psalm, the Minister shall (in Neh. viii. 4, 5 ; the pulpit) first reverently, prudently, and ix. 2, 3, 4, 5, fervently pray, according to the state and necessities of the Church, and those especially that are present, and according to the subject that he is to preach on. And after prayer, he shall preach upon some text of Holy Scripture, suiting his matter to the necessities of the hearers, and the manner of delivery to their quality and benefit : always speaking from faith and holy experience in himself, with plainness and perspicuity, with reverence and gravity, with convincing evidence and authority, with prudence, caution, faithfulness, and impartiality, with tender love and melting compassion, with fervent zeal and persuading importunity, and with frequency and unwearied patience ; waiting on God for the

The Sermon and Prayer being ended, let the Minister dismiss the Congregation with a Benediction, in these or the like words.

Blessed are they that hear the word Luke xi. 28.
 of God, and keep it.

The Lord bless you, and keep you; Numb. vi. 24,
 the Lord make his face to shine on 25, 26.
 you, and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 Cor. xiii. 14.
 and the love of God the Father, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

Except there be a Communion in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to be celebrated, or any further worship to be performed: and then the Minister may delay the Benediction till the end.

And because, when there is leisure, the prayers of the Church should be as full as the rule and our necessities require; let the following General Prayer be used, when the Minister findeth it convenient, instead of the Litany and Collects.

Here are also adjoined a Thanksgiving for Christ and his benefits, and a Hymn to be used at the discretion of the Minister, either after Sermon, or at the Communion, or on other days.

A Prayer for the King, the Royal Family, and Magistrates.

Save us from the curse and punishment which they deserve, and teach us heartily to forgive others. Convert our enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and forgive them.

Cause us to watch against temptations; to resist and overcome the flesh, the devil, and the world; and by no allurements of pleasure, profit, or honour, to be drawn from thee to sin. Let us patiently suffer with Christ, that we may reign with him.

Deliver us and all thy people from the enmity and rage of Satan, and all his wicked instruments; and preserve us to thy heavenly kingdom.

For thou only art the universal King: all power is thine in heaven and earth: of thee, and through thee, and to thee, are all things; and the glory shall be thine for ever.

Concerning the Psalms for public use.

We desire that instead of the imperfect version of the Psalms in metre now in use, Mr. William Barton's version, and that perused and approved by the Church of Scotland there in use, (being the best that we have seen,) may be received and corrected by some skilful men, and both allowed (for grateful variety) to be printed together in several columns or pages, and publicly used; at least, until a better than either of them shall be made.

A Thanksgiving for Christ, and his gracious benefits.

head corner-stone ; and hast committed to thy ministers the word of reconciliation, that, as ambassadors speaking in the stead of Christ, they might beseech us to be reconciled unto thee. We thank thee that by them thou hast opened our eyes, and turned us from darkness unto light, and from the power of Satan unto God. We were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, taken captive by Satan at his will : but thy mercy saved us by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost. Thou mightest justly have left us to the blindness of our minds, and to the hardness of our hearts, to seared consciences, to be past feeling, to our own hearts' lusts, to walk in our own counsels, and to work uncleanness with greediness, when we so oft refused to come to Christ that we might have life, and would not have him to reign over us. But thy patience waited on us in our sin ; and all the day long didst thou stretch forth thy hand to a disobedient and gainsaying people. When we turned from thee, thou calledst after us to turn and live ; thou drewest us to thy Son, and openedst our hearts to attend to thy call ; thou lovedst us first, and wast found of them that sought thee not. Thou hast pardoned our great and manifold transgressions, and justified us by faith in Christ, and given us repentance unto life. Thou hast adopted us to be thy sons, and joint-heirs with Christ; and made us his members, and given us his Spirit: we are no more strangers, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of thy household. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who of his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for us. Thou keepest us by thy mighty power through faith unto salvation, ready at last to be revealed; though (when they are needful) we must for a season be in heaviness under tribulations. Thou hast promised that all things shall work together for our good. In all our straits thou grantest us access to the throne of grace; bidding us call upon thee in the time of trouble, and promising to deliver us, that we may glorify thee. Everywhere we have leave to lift up unto thee holy hands; especially in the house of prayer, and the assembly of the saints. Thou hast heard the voice of our supplications, when we have cried unto thee; great is thy mercy towards us. O Lord, thou hast delivered our souls from the lowest hell: thou hast sent forth from heaven thy mercy and truth; and saved us from the reproach of him that would swallow us up. Thou art our hiding-place: in the secrets of thy presence thou preservest us from trouble, from the pride of men, and from the strife of tongues. Thou Psal. lvi. 3;

The Hymn.

The First Part.

Psal. ciii. 1, 2. BLESS the Lord, O my soul; and all that is within me bless his holy name : bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits :

3, 4. who forgiveth all thine iniquities, and healeth all thy diseases; who redeemed thy life from destruction, and crowneth thee with loving-

12. kindness and tender mercies. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Behold, what love the 1 John iii. 1. Father hath bestowed on us, that we should be called the sons of God. Because thy loving-kindness is better than life, my Psal. lxxiii. 3, 4; lips shall praise thee. Thus will I lxxiii. 25, 26, bless thee while I live; I will lift 27, 28.

 up my hands in thy name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none on earth that I desire besides thee! My flesh and my heart faileth; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. For lo, all that are far from thee shall perish: but it is good for me to draw near to God. I am continually with thee:
 thou hast holden me by my right hand. Psal. xciv. 19.
 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts delight my soul. Thou Psal. lxxiii. 24.
 shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterwards receive me to glory.

The Second Part.

How excellent is thy loving-kindness, O Psal. xxxvi. 7,
 God! therefore do the sons of men put 8, 9.
 their trust under the shadow of thy wings. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house, and thou shalt make them drink of the rivers of thy pleasures. For with thee is the fountain of life : in thy light we shall see light. Therefore my Psalm. xvi. 9, 11. heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth :

 my flesh also shall rest in hope. Thou wilt shew me the path of life : in thy presence is fulness of joy ; and at thy right hand are pleasures for shall follow me all the days of my life ; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever. O con-sing praise unto thee, and not be silent, O Lord my God, I give thanks to thee for ever.

The Third Part.

Luke ii. 14. GLORY to God in the highest : on earth peace, good will towards men ! Praise ye the Lord ; Psalm. cxlix. 1, sing to the Lord a new song : his 10, 11, 12, 13. thee, O Lord ; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power : to make known to the sons of men thy mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of thy kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion is through all generations. The elders and saints Rev. iv. 8, 11. about thy throne rest not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power ; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. They sing unto Rev. xv. 3, 4. thee the song of Moses and of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty ; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name ? For thou only art holy : for all nations shall come and worship before thee : for thy judgments are made manifest. Worthy Rev. v. 12, 13. is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory. For thou hast redeemed us to 9, 10. God by thy blood, and made us kings and priests to God.

The Fourth Part.

The Order of Celebrating the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.

This, or the like explication of the nature, use, and benefits of this Sacrament, may be used at the discretion of the Minister, when he seeth it needful to the instruction of the communicants.

THAT you may discern the Lord's body, and understand the nature, use, and benefits of this Sacrament, you must know that God created man in his own image, to know, and love, and serve his Maker. That man fell under the guilt of sin, and condemnation, and left his holy fitness for the work for which he was created. That hereupon the wonderful love and wisdom of God provided us a remedy in our Redeemer, to the end he might not lose the glory of his creation: that he might pardon and save us upon terms securing the honour of his justice, and attaining the ends of his law and government; and recover us to his love and service, by appearing to the world in the greatest demonstrations of goodness, love, and mercy. By the greatest miracle of condescension, he first promised, and then gave, his only Son, the eternal Word, to take man's nature into personal union with his Godhead ; that, being God and man, he might be a fit Mediator between God and man, to restore us and reconcile us to himself. Thus Jesus Christ, conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary, became the second Adam, the Physician and Saviour of undone sinners, the Captain of our salvation, to be the glorious King and Head of all that are sanctified and saved. He revealed the holiness, the goodness, and the love of God, by the perfect holiness, the goodness, and love, of his blessed person, doctrine, and conversation ; and by suffering for us all the afflictions of this life, and at last the cursed death of the cross, as a sacrifice and ransom for us. That all this might be effectual to our recovery, he made for us a new and better covenant, and preached it himself, undertaking the pardon, justification, and sanctification of all that by unfeigned faith do take him for their Saviour, repenting of their sins, and consenting to be sanctified by his word and Spirit ; (by which also he inviteth and draweth men to himself, and giveth them to believe.) Into this blessed, pardoning, saving covenant we are first solemnly entered by baptism. And when Christ was ready to leave the world, and to give up himself a sacrifice for us, and intercede and exercise the fulness of his kingly power, as the Church's Head, and by his grace to draw men to himself, and prepare them for his glory ; he did himself institute this Sacrament of his body and blood at his last supper, to be a continued representation and remembrance of his death, and therein of his own and his Father's love, until his coming : appointing his ministers, by the preaching of the Gospel, and administration of these sacraments, to be his agents without, and his Spirit within effectually to communicate his grace.

[The Lord's Supper, then, is an holy Sacrament, instituted by Christ : wherein bread and wine, being first by consecration made sacramentally, or representatively, the body and blood of Christ, are used by breaking and pouring out to represent and commemorate the sacrifice of Christ's body and blood upon the cross once offered up to God for sin ; and are given in the name of Christ unto the Church, to signify and solemnize the renewal of his holy covenant with them, and the giving of himself unto them, to expiate their sins by his sacrifice, and sanctify them further by his Spirit, and confirm their right to everlasting life. And they are received, eaten, and drunk by the Church, to profess that they willingly receive Christ himself to the ends aforesaid, (their justification, sanctification, and glorification,) and to signify and solemnize the renewal of their covenant with him, and their holy communion with him and with one another.]

It being the renewing of a mutual covenant that is here solemnized, as we commemorate Christ's sacrifice, and receive him and his saving benefits; so we offer and deliver to him ourselves, as his redeemed, sanctified people, to be a living acceptable sacrifice, thankfully and obediently to live unto his praise.

Before the receiving of this holy Sacrament, we must examine ourselves, and come preparedly: in the receiving of it, we must exercise holy affections suited to the work: and after the receiving of it, we must, by consideration of it, endeavour to revive the same affections, and perform our covenant there renewed.

The holy qualifications, to be before provided, and in receiving exercised, and after receiving, are these:—1. A true belief of the articles of the Christian faith, concerning Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; the person, offices, works and sufferings, and benefits of Christ. 2. The sense of our sinful and undone condition, as in ourselves, and of our need of Christ; so as humbly to loathe ourselves for our transgressions: with the sense of our present weaknesses to be strengthened, and sins to be forgiven. 3. A true desire after Christ for pardon, and spiritual nourishment, and salvation. 4. A thankful sense of the wonderful love of God, declared in our redemption, and in the present offers of Christ, and life. 5. The exercise of holy love and joy in the sense of this unspeakable love: if these two be not felt before we come, yet in and after the Sacrament we must strive to exercise them. 6. A love to one another, and forgiving wrongs to one another, with a desire after the communion of saints. 7. The giving up ourselves in covenant to God, with resolution of renewed obedience. 8. A patient hope for the coming of Christ himself, and of the everlasting kingdom, where we shall be perfectly united in him, and glorified with him.

Those only are to be invited to the Lord's table, and to come, that truly repent and believe, and unfeignedly consent to the terms of the covenant; (though all are not* to be invited thus to believe and repent, and so (to) come). But those are to be admitted by the pastors, if they come, who, having the use of reason to understand what they do, and examine themselves, have made a personal profession of faith, repentance, and obedience; and are members of the Church, and not justly for heresy, or scandalous sin, removed from its present communion.

The benefit of the Sacrament is not to be judged of only by present experience and feeling, but by faith. God having appointed us to use it, and promised his blessing, we may and must believe that he will make good his promise; and whatever we feel at present, that we sincerely wait not on him in vain.

The Exhortation.

You are invited hither, dear brethren, to be guests at this holy Table, by the Lord's command, to receive the greatest mercy, and to perform the greatest duty. On Christ's part all things are made ready. The feast is prepared for you, even for you that by sin have deserved to be cast out of the presence of the Lord; for you that have so oft neglected and abused mercy: a feast of the body and blood of Christ, free to you, but dear to him. You were lost, and in the way to be lost for ever, when, by the greatest miracle of condescending love, he sought and saved you. You were dead in sin, condemned by the law, the slaves of Satan; there wanted nothing but the executing stroke of justice to have sent you into endless misery; when our Redeemer* pitied you in your blood, and shed his own to wash and heal you. He suffered that was offended, that the offender might not suffer. He cried out on the cross, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" that we, who had deserved it, might not be everlastingly forsaken. He died, that we might live. O, how would the mercy of redemption have affected you, if you had first lien one year, or month, or day in hell! Had you but seen your dying Lord, or seen the damned in their misery, how do you think you should have valued the salvation that is now revealed and tendered to you? See here Christ dying in this holy representation! Behold the sacrificed Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world! It is his will to be thus frequently crucified before our eyes. O, how should we be covered with shame, and loathe ourselves, that have (both) procured the death of Christ by sin, and sinned against it ! And how should we all be filled with joy, that have such mysteries of mercy opened, and so great salvation freely offered to us ! O, hate sin ! O, love this Saviour ! See that you come not hither without a desire to be more holy, nor with a purpose to go on in wilful sin. Be not deceived, God is not mocked : but if you heartily repent, and consent to the covenant, come and welcome. We have commission from Christ to tell you that you are welcome. Let no trembling, contrite soul draw back, that is willing to be Christ's upon his covenant terms ; but believe that Christ is much more willing to be yours. He was first willing, and therefore died for you, and made the covenant of grace, and sent to invite and importune you to consent, and stayed for you so long, and gave you your repentance, your willingness and desire. Question not then his willingness, if you are willing : it is Satan and unbelief that would have you question it, to the injury both of Christ and you. Come near, observe, believe, and wonder at the riches of his love and grace ; for he hath himself invited you to see and taste, that you may wonder. You are sinners, but he inviteth you to receive a renewed, sealed pardon of your sins, and to give you more of his Spirit to overcome them. See here his broken body and his blood, the testimonies of his willingness. Thus hath he sealed the covenant, which pardoneth all your sins, and secureth you of your reconciliation with God, and your adoption, and your right to everlasting blessedness. Deny not your consent, but heartily give up yourselves to Christ; and then doubt not but your scarlet, crimson sins shall be made as white as wool or snow. Object not the number or greatness of them against his grace: there is none too great for him to pardon to penitent believers. Great sins shall bring great glory to his blood and grace. But strive you then for great loathing of your sins, and greater love to such a God, and greater thanks to such a Saviour. Unfeignedly say, I am willing, Lord, to be wholly thine; and then believingly take Christ, and pardon, and life, as given you by his own appointment in the sealed covenant. And remember that he is coming. He is coming with thousands of his mighty angels, to execute judgment on the ungodly; but to be glorified in his saints, and admired in all that do believe. And then we shall have greater things than these. Then shall you see all the promises fulfilled, which now are sealed to you, on which he causeth you to trust. Revive now your love to one another, and forgive those that have wronged you, and delight in the communion of the saints: and then you shall be admitted into the Church triumphant, where, with perfect saints, you shall perfectly rejoice, and love and praise the Lord for ever. Receive now a crucified Christ here represented, and be contented to take up your cross, and follow him: and then you shall reign with a glorified Christ, in the blessed vision and fruition of that God, to whom by Christ you are now reconciled. Let faith and love be working upon these things, while you are at this holy Table.

Then shall the Minister use this, or the like Prayer.

sin, thou madest us alive. Thou sawest us polluted in our blood, and saidst unto us, Live! In that time of love thou coveredst our nakedness, and enteredst into a covenant with us, and we became thine own. Thou didst deliver us from the power of darkness, and translate us into the kingdom of thy dear Son; and gavest us remission of sin, through his blood. But we are grievous revolvers; we have forgotten the covenant of the Lord our God. We were engaged to love thee with all our hearts, and to hate iniquity, and serve thee diligently, and thankfully to set forth thy praise. But we have departed from thee, and corrupted ourselves by self-love, and by loving the world, and the things that are in the world; and have fulfilled the desires of the flesh, which we should have crucified. We have neglected our duty to thee, and to our neighbour, and the necessary care of our own salvation. We have been unprofitable servants, and have hid thy dant mercy ; and our Advocate, Jesus Christ the righteous, is the propitiation for our sins : who bare them in his body on the cross, and made himself an offering for them, that he might put them away by the sacrifice of himself. Have mercy upon us, and wash us in his blood ; clothe us with his righteousness : take away our iniquities, and let them not be our ruin ; forgive them, and remember them no more. Sanctify these thy creatures of bread and wine, which, according to thy institution and command, we set apart to this holy use, that they may be sacramentally the body and blood of thy Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

Then (or immediately before this Prayer) let the Minister read the words of the institution, saying :

HEAR what the apostle Paul saith : For 1 Cor. xi. 23, 24, I have received of the Lord that which 25, 26. also I deliver unto you ; that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat, this is my body which is broken for you : this do in remembrance of me. After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood ; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me : for as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

Then let the Minister say :

THIS bread and wine, being set apart, and consecrated to this holy use by God's appointment, are now no common bread and wine, but sacramentally the body and blood of Christ.

WE were redeemed with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot.

Then let him thus pray :

Most Holy Spirit, proceeding from the Father and the Son : by whom Christ was conceived ; by whom the prophets and apostles were inspired, and the ministers of Christ are qualified and called : that dwellest and workest in all the members of Christ, whom thou sanctifiest to the image and for the service of their Head, and comfortest them that they may shew forth his praise : illuminate us, that by faith we may see him that is here represented to us. Soften our hearts, and humble us for our sins. Sanctify and quicken us, that we may relish the spiritual food, and feed on it to our nourishment and growth in grace. Shed abroad the love of God upon our hearts, and draw them out in love to him. Fill us with thankfulness and holy joy, and with love to one another. Comfort us by witnessing that we are the children of God. Confirm us for new obedience. Be the earnest of our inheritance, and seal us up to everlasting life. Amen.

Let it be left to the Minister's choice, whether he will consecrate the bread and wine together, and break the bread, and pour out the wine immediately ; or whether he will consecrate and pour out the wine, when the communicants have eaten the bread. If he do the latter, he must use the foregoing prayers and expressions twice accordingly. And let it be left to his discretion, whether he will use any words at the breaking of the bread and pouring out the wine, or not. And if the Minister choose to pray but once at the consecration, commemoration, and delivery, let him pray as followeth, or to this sense.

ALMIGHTY God, thou art the Creator and the Lord of all. Thou art the Sovereign Majesty whom we have offended. Thou art our merciful Father, who hast given us thy Son to reconcile us to thyself; who hath ratified the new testament and covenant of grace with his most precious blood, and hath instituted this holy Sacrament to be celebrated in memorial of him till his coming. Sanctify these thy creatures of bread and wine, which, according to thy will, we set apart to this holy use, that they may be sacramentally the body and blood of thy Son Jesus Christ. And, through his sacrifice and intercession, give us the pardon of all our sins, and be reconciled to us, and nourish us by the body and blood of Christ to everlasting life. And, to that end, give us thy quickening Spirit to shew Christ to our believing souls, that is here represented to our senses. Let him soften our hearts, and humble us for our sins, and cause us to feed on Christ by faith. Let him shed abroad thy love upon our hearts, and draw them on in love to thee, and fill us with holy joy and thankfulness, and fervent love to one another. Let him comfort us by witnessing that we are thy* children, and confirm us for new obedience, and be the earnest of our inheritance, and seal us up to life everlasting, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Let it be left to the Minister's discretion, whether to deliver the bread and wine to the people, at the table, only in general, each one taking it and applying it to themselves; or to deliver it in general to so many as are in each particular form; or to put it into every person's hand: as also at what season to take the contribution for the poor. And let none of the people be forced to sit, stand, or kneel in the act of receiving, whose judgment is against it.

*The participation being ended, let the Minister pray thus,
or to this sense.*

thus loved us? Shall we not love thy servants, and forgive our neighbours their little debt? After all this, shall we again forsake thee, and deal falsely in thy covenant? God forbid! O set our affections on the things above, where Christ sitteth at thy right hand. Let us no more mind earthly things; but let our conversation be in heaven, from whence we expect our Saviour to come and change us into the likeness of his glory. Teach us to do thy will, O God, and to follow him who is the author of eternal salvation to all them that do obey him. Order our steps by thy word, and let not any iniquity have dominion over us. and shortly bruise him under our feet. Accept us, O Lord, who resign ourselves unto thee as thine own ; and with our thanks and praise, present ourselves a living sacrifice to be acceptable through Christ, useful for thine honour. Being made free from sin, and become thy servants, let us have our fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Next add this, or some such exhortation, if there be time.

DEAR brethren, we have been here feasted with the Son of God at his table, upon his flesh and blood, in preparation for the feast of endless glory. You have seen here represented what sin deserveth, what Christ suffered, what wonderful love the God of infinite goodness hath expressed to us. You have had communion with the saints ; you have renewed your covenant of faith, and thankful obedience unto Christ ; you have received his renewed covenant of pardon, grace and glory, unto you. O carry hence the lively sense of these great and excellent things upon your hearts. You came not (only) to receive the mercy of an hour only, but that which may spring up to endless joy : you came not only to do the duty of an hour, but to promise that which you must perform while you live on earth. Remember daily, especially when temptations to unbelief and sinful heaviness assault you, what pledges of love you here received ; remember daily, especially when the flesh, the devil, or the world, would draw your hearts again from God, and temptations to sin are laid before you, what bonds God and your own consent have laid upon you. If you are penitent believers, you are now forgiven, and washed in the blood of Christ. O go your way, and sin no more ; no more through wilfulness : and strive against your sins of weakness. Wallow no more in the mire, and return not to your vomit. Let the exceeding love of Christ constrain you, having such promises, to cleanse yourselves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God ; and as a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people, to be zealous of good works, and shew forth the praises of him that hath called you.

Next sing part of the Hymn in metre, or some other fit Psalm of praise, (as the 23rd, 116th, 103rd, or 100th, &c.) and conclude with this, or the like, blessing :

Now the God of peace, which brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebration of the Sacrament of Baptism.

LET no Minister, that is therein unsatisfied, be forced against his judgment to baptize the child of open atheists, idolaters, or infidels, or that are unbaptized themselves, or of such as do not competently understand the essentials of Christianity, (what it is to be a Christian,) and the essentials of Baptism, nor of such as never, since they were baptized, did personally own their baptismal covenant by a credible profession of faith and obedience, received and approved by some Pastor of the church, as before Confirmation is required, and in his Majesty's Declaration. Nor yet the child of parents justly excommunicate, or that live in any notorious, scandalous sin, or have lately committed such a sin, (as if the child be gotten in adultery or fornication,) and, being justly convict of it, refuseth penitently to confess it, and promise reformation. But if either of the parents be duly qualified, and present the child to be baptized, (or another for them, in case they cannot be present,) the child is to be received unto Baptism.

And if both the natural parents are infidels, excommunicate, or otherwise unqualified; yet if any become the pro-parents and owners of the child, and undertake to educate it in the faith of Christ, and fear of God, and so present it to be baptized, let it be done by a Minister whose judgment doth approve it: but let no Minister be forced to it against his judgment. Let the parents, or owners, come to the Minister, at some convenient time the week before, and acquaint him when they intend to offer their child to baptism, and give an account of their foresaid capacity; and receive his further ministerial assistance for the fuller understanding of the use and benefits of the Sacrament, and their own duty. The font is to be placed to the greatest conveniency of the Minister and people. The child or children being there presented, the Minister may begin with this or the like speech, directed to the parent (or parents) that presenteth it.

THAT you may perform this service to God with understanding, you must know that God having made man in his own image to love and serve him, our first parents wilfully corrupted themselves by sin, and became the children of death, and the captives of Satan, who had overcome them by his temptation. And as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; so death passed upon all, for that all have sinned, and came short of the glory of God. We are conceived in sin, and are by nature children of wrath : for who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean ? By the offence of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation. But the infinite wisdom and love of the Father hath sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world. The Word was made flesh, and dwelt on earth, and overcame the devil and the world ; fulfilled all righteousness, and suffered for our sins upon the cross, and rose again, and reigneth in glory ; and will come again, and judge the world in righteousness. In him God hath made and offered to the world a covenant of grace ; and in it the pardon of sin to all true penitent believers, and power to be the sons of God, and heirs of heaven. This covenant is extended to the seed also of the faithful, to give them the benefits suitable to their age ; the parents dedicating them unto God, and entering them into the covenant : and so God, in Christ, will be their God, and number them with his people.

This covenant is to be solemnly entered into by baptism : which is an holy Sacrament, instituted by Christ ; in which a person professing the Christian faith (or the infant of such) is baptized in water into the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in signification and solemnization of the holy covenant, in which, as a penitent believer, (or the seed of such,) he giveth up himself (or is by the parent given up) to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, from henceforth, (or from the time of natural capacity,) to believe in, love and fear this blessed Trinity, against the flesh, the devil, and the world ; (and this, especially, on the account of redemption ;) and is solemnly entered a visible member of Christ and his Church, a child of God, and an heir of heaven. How great now is the mercy, and how great the duty that is before you ! Is it a small mercy for this child to be accepted into the covenant of God, and washed from its original sin in the blood of Christ, (which is signified and sealed by this sacramental washing in water ;) to be accepted as a member of Christ and of his Church, where he vouchsafeth his protection and provision, and the means and Spirit of grace, and the renewed pardon of sin upon repentance ; and for you to see this happiness of your child ? The duty on your part is, first to see that you are stedfast in the faith and covenant of Christ, that you perish not yourself, and that your child is indeed the child of a believer : and then you are believingly and thankfully to dedicate your child to God, and to enter it into the covenant in which you stand. And you must know, that your faith, and consent, and dedication, will suffice for your children no longer than till they come to age themselves; and then they must own their baptismal covenant, and personally renew it, and consent and give up themselves to God, or else they will not be owned by Christ. You must, therefore, acquaint them with the doctrine of the Gospel as they grow up, and with the covenant now made; and bring them up in the fear of the Lord. And when they are actually penitent believers, they must present themselves to the Pastors of the church, to be approved and received into the communion of the adult believers.

If the persons be before well instructed in the nature of Baptism, and time require brevity, the Minister may omit the first part of this speech, and begin at the description of Baptism, or after it. If there be need of satisfying the people of the duty of baptizing infants, the Minister may here do it; otherwise let the questions here immediately follow.

The Minister shall here say to the Parent, and the Parent answer, as followeth :

IT being the faithful and their seed to whom the promises are made ; and no man will sincerely dedicate his child to that God that he believeth not in, himself ; I therefore require you to make profession of your own faith.

Quest. Do you believe in God the Father Almighty ? &c.

Answ. All this I do unfeignedly believe.

Quest. Do you repent of your sins, and renounce the flesh, the devil, and the world, and consent to the covenant of grace, giving up yourself to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, as your Creator and reconciled Father, your Redeemer and your Sanctifier ?

Answ. I do.

Or thus rather, if the Parent be fit to utter his own faith :

Quest. Do you remain stedfast in the covenant which you made in Baptism yourself ?

Answ. Repenting of my sins, I do renounce the flesh, the devil, and the world ; and I give up myself to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, my Creator and reconciled Father, my Redeemer and my Sanctifier.

Quest. Do you present and dedicate this child unto God, to be baptized into this faith, and solemnly engaged in this covenant unto God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, against the flesh, the devil, and the world?

Answ. It is my desire: I do present, and dedicate him for this end.

Quest. Do you here solemnly promise, that, if God continue it with you till it be capable of instructions, you will faithfully endeavour to acquaint this child with the covenant in which he was here by you engaged, and to instruct and exhort him to perform this covenant, as ever he looks for the blessings of it, or to escape the curses and wrath of God: that is, that he renounce the flesh, the world, and the devil, and live not after them; and that he believe in this one God in three persons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, his Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier; that he resign himself to him as his absolute owner, and obey him as his supreme Governor, and love him as his most gracious Father, hoping to enjoy him as his felicity in endless glory?

Answ. I will faithfully endeavour it.

Quest. Will you to this end faithfully endeavour to cause him to learn the articles of the Christian faith, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments; and to read or hear the holy Scriptures, and to attend on the public preaching of God's word? Will you endeavour, by your own teaching, and example, and restraint, to keep him from wickedness, and train him up in a holy life?

Answer. I will faithfully endeavour it, by the help of God.

Then let the Minister pray thus, or to this sense :

Then the Minister shall ask of the parent the name of the child to be baptized ; and, naming him, shall either dip him under the water, or else pour water upon his face, if he cannot be safely or conveniently dipped ; and shall use these words without alteration :

I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

And he shall thus declare :

THIS child is now received by Christ's appointment

into his Church, and solemnly entered into the holy covenant; and engaged, if he lives to the use of reason, to rise with Christ to newness of life, as being buried with him by baptism, and to bear his cross, and confess Christ crucified, and faithfully to fight under his banner against the flesh, the devil, and the world, and to continue his faithful soldier and servant to the death, that he may receive the crown of life.

Then he shall give thanks, and pray.

Then use this exhortation, or the like, to the Parents.

You that have devoted this child to God, and engaged it in covenant to him, must be thankful for so great a mercy to the child, and must be faithful in performing what you have promised on your parts, in instructing and educating this child in the faith and fear of God, that he may own and perform the covenant now made, and receive all the blessings which God hath promised. Hear what God hath

Eph. vi. 4. made your duty : Fathers, provoke not your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Train up a

Prov. xxii. 6. child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. The rod and Prov. xxix. 15. reproof give wisdom ; but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. Thou

Deut. vi. 5, 6, 7. shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might ; and these words which I command thee this day shall be in thy heart, and thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children ; and thou shalt talk of them when thou sittest in the house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and Josh. xxiv. 15. when thou risest up. Joshua saith, As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. And 2 Tim. iii. 15. Paul saith of Timothy, From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Then say to the people thus, or to this sense :

You have heard, beloved, how great a dignity we were advanced to in our baptism, to how great duty we are all engaged. O search and try, whether you have kept or broken the covenant which you made, and have lived according to the dignity of your calling. And if any of you be atheists, unbelievers, or ungodly, and love not God above all, and neglect Christ and his salvation, and are yet unsanctified,* and live after the flesh, the devil, and the world, which you here renounced ; as you love your souls, bewail your perfidious covenant-breaking with God. Trust not the water of baptism alone : if you are not born again of John iii. 5, 6. the Spirit also, you cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Baptism will not save you, if 1 Pet. iii. 21. you have not the answer of a good conscience unto God. If any man have not the Spirit Rom. viii. 9. of Christ, the same is none of his : much less those wretches that hate sanctification, and despise and scorn a holy life, when they were by baptism engaged to the Holy Ghost the Sanctifier. Can you think to be saved by the covenant which you keep not ? O no ! Your perfidiousness aggravateth your Eccl. v. 4, 5. sin and misery. When thou vowest a vow to God, defer not to pay it ; for he hath no pleasure in fools : pay that which thou hast vowed ; better it is that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. O bless the Lord, that it is a covenant of such grace which is tendered to you ; that, upon true repentance and conversion, even your covenant-breaking shall be forgiven : and therefore, penitently cast down yourselves before the Lord, and believingly cast yourselves on Christ, and yield to the teachings and sanctifying operations of the Holy Ghost. Yet know the day of your visitation, and forsake the flesh, the devil, and the world, and turn to God with all your hearts, and give up yourselves entirely to your Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier ; and he will have mercy upon you, and will abundantly pardon you. But if you still live after the flesh, you shall die : and if you continue to neglect this great salvation, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sin, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fire, which shall devour the adversaries.

Let no children be privately baptized, nor any Minister forced to baptize them anywhere, besides in the public assembly, unless upon some special weighty cause. If there be occasion for baptizing the adult, let the Minister accordingly suit his expressions.

Of Catechising, and the Approbation of those that are to be admitted to the Lord's Supper.

SEEING none can be saved at years of discretion, that do not actually believe, and personally give up themselves in covenant to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; therefore, as parents must do their parts, so ministers must catechise the ignorant, and diligently labour to cause them both to learn the form of wholesome words, (even the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and some brief, yet full and sound, Catechism;) and to understand the meaning of them, and to engage their hearts into the love of God, and a holy obedience to his laws.

To this end, let the minister, either every Lord's-day, before the Evening Prayers, or at some convenient hour, or on some other day of the week, as oft as he can, examine publicly such as are not admitted to the Lord's Supper, and take an account of their learning, and understanding the Creed, the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, and the Catechism. And let him, by questioning and explication, help them to understand them ; and let such of the several families of the parish come in their turns, when they are called by the minister to be thus catechised. Also, let the minister either go to their houses, or rather appoint the persons aforesaid in their courses, at a certain hour and place, (in the church or any other fit place,) to come to him for personal instructions, where he may confer with those that are unmeet to be catechised publicly, or unwilling to submit to it ; and there with humble, prudent, serious instruction and exhortation, let him endeavour to acquaint them with the substance of Christian faith and duty, and to help them to make sure their calling and election, and to prepare for death and judgment, and exhort them to love and to good works, and warn them lest they be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. But let him not, in public or private, meddle with impertinencies, or spend the time about smaller matters, or singular opinions, nor sift people to know things unfit or unnecessary to be disclosed, nor meddle with matters that do not concern him as a minister to inquire after ; but help them to learn, and understand, and practise the Christian religion expressed in the Catechism.

The Catechism.

LET none be admitted by the minister to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, till they have, at years of discretion, understood the meaning of their baptismal covenant; and with their own mouths, and their own consent, openly before the Church, ratified and confirmed, and also promised, that by the grace of God they will evermore endeavour themselves faithfully to observe and keep such things as by their own mouth and confession they have assented to; and so, being instructed in the Christian religion, do openly make a credible profession of their own faith, and promise to be obedient to the will of God.

See the Rubric for Catechism and Confirmation in the Common Prayer; and also his Majesty's Declaration concerning Ecclesiastical Affairs.

A profession is credible, when it is made understandingly, seriously, voluntarily, deliberately; and not nullified by contradiction in word or deed. And that profession is incredible, that is made ignorantly, ludicrously, forcedly, rashly, or that is nullified by verbal or practical contradiction. And it must be practice first, that must make words credible, when the person by perfidiousness hath forfeited his credit. It is not private persons only, but the pastors of the Church that must approve of this profession. Therefore, before any are admitted to the Lord's Supper, they shall give a good account of their knowledge, faith, and Christian conversation conformable thereunto, unto the pastors of their respective congregations; or else shall produce a certificate, that they have been approved or admitted to the Lord's Supper in another congregation, of which they were members, and that by an allowed minister, upon such approved profession as aforesaid.

If the person be able and willing, let him before the congregation give the aforesaid account at large, of his knowledge, faith, and obedience: but if, through backwardness, or disability for public speech, he shall refuse it, let him make the same profession privately to the minister, and own it in the assembly, when the minister shall declare it, and ask him whether he owns it. But unless it be in case of some extraordinary natural imperfection, and disability of utterance, let him at least openly recite the Creed, and profess his consent to the covenant with God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Let the minister of every parish keep a double register : one, of the names of all that are there baptized ; another, of the names of all that are approved upon their aforesaid credible profession, and so admitted into the number of communicants, or that have a certificate of such approbation, regularly elsewhere performed.

And if Confirmation be continued, let his Majesty's Declaration be observed, requiring that Confirmation be rightly and solemnly performed, by the information, and with the consent, of the minister of the place.

Let no minister be enforced to admit any himself to the Lord's Supper, who hath been clancularly* and irregularly approved.

Those that after this approbation prove scandalous offenders, shall not by the minister be suffered to partake of the Lord's Table, until they have openly declared themselves to have truly repented, and amended their former naughty lives.

Of the Celebration of Matrimony.

BEFORE the solemnizing of marriage between any persons, their purpose of marriage shall be published by the minister three several Lord's-days in the congregation, at the place or places of their most usual abode respectively. And of this publication the minister who is to join them in marriage shall have sufficient testimony, before he proceed to solemnize the marriage ; the parents' consent being first sufficiently made known.

Clancularly, (Lat. clanculum ;) secretly, surreptitiously.—P. H.

At the celebration the minister shall, either by a sermon, or other exhortation, open to them the institution, ends, and use of marriage, with the conjugal duties which they are faithfully to perform to each other : and then shall demand of them whether it be their desire and purpose to be joined together in the bond of the marriage covenant ; and if they answer affirmatively, he shall say to them :

I REQUIRE and charge you, as you will answer at the dreadful day of judgment, when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed, that if either of you do know any impediment, by precontract, or otherwise, why you may not lawfully be joined together in marriage, you discover it, and proceed not.

If no impediment be discovered by them or others, he shall proceed and pray.

Gen. ii. 48 ; i. 28. MOST merciful Father, who hast ordained marriage for mutual help, and for the increase of mankind with a legitimate issue, and of the Church with a holy seed, and for prevention of uncleanness: bless thy own ordinance to these persons, that, entering this state of marriage in thy fear, they may there entirely devote themselves unto thee, and be faithful in all conjugal affections and duties unto each other. [And if thou bless them with children, If they be young let them be devoted unto thee, and accepted as thine with children, own, and blessed with thy grace, and educated in thy fear.] Subdue those corruptions that would make their lives unholy or uncomfortable, and deliver them from temptations to impiety, worldliness, inquietness, discontent, or disaffection to each other; or to any unfaithfulness, to thee or to each other. Make them meet helps to each other in thy fear, and in the lawful management of the affairs of this world. Let them not hinder, but provoke one another to love and to good works: and, foreseeing the day of their separation by death, let them spend ried according to God's ordinance, I do pronounce them husband and wife. And those whom God hath conjoined, let no man put asunder.

Then let the Minister say,

and affairs, unto thy glory. Furnish them with love to thee and to each

The Visitation of the Sick, and their Communion.

THE Visitation of the Sick being a private duty, and no part of the public Liturgy of the Church, and the case of the sick being so exceeding various, as to soul and body ; and it being requisite that ministers be able to suit their exhortations and prayers to the condition of the sick ; let the words of such exhortations and prayers be left to their prudence.

So urgent is the necessity of the sick, and so seasonable and advantageous the opportunity, that ministers may not negligently overpass them, but in love and tenderness instruct them according to their several conditions : endeavouring the conversion of the ungodly, the strengthening of the weak, and comforting such as need consolation ; directing them how to improve their afflictions, and helping them to be sensible of the evil of sin, the negligences and miscarriages of their lives, the vanity of the world, their necessity of a Saviour, the sufficiency of Christ, the certainty and excellency of the everlasting glory : exhorting them to repentance and to faith in Christ, and to set their affections on the things above ; and (if they are penitent believers) comfortably to hope for the kingdom which God hath promised to them that love him, committing their souls to their Redeemer, and quietly resting in the will, and love, and promises of God : resolving, if God shall recover them to health, to redeem the time, and live the rest of their lives unto his glory ; and being willing, if it be their appointed time, to depart and be with Christ. And they must be exhorted to forgive such as have wronged them, and to be reconciled to those with whom they have been at variance, and to make a pious, just, and charitable disposal of their worldly estates.

The Order for solemnizing the Burial of the Dead.

IT is agreeable to nature and religion, that the burial of Christians be solemnly and decently performed. As to the cases, whether the corpse shall be carried first into the church, that is to be buried in the churchyard ; and whether it shall be buried before the sermon, reading, or prayer, or after, or in the midst of the reading ; or whether any prayer shall be made at the grave for the living : let no Christians uncharitably judge one another about these things. Let no people keep up groundless usages, that, being suspicious, grieve their minister, and offend their brethren. Let no minister that scrupleth the satisfying of people's ungrounded desires in such things, be forced to do it against his conscience ; and let ministers that do use (any of*) these customs or ceremonies, have liberty, when they suspect that the people desire them upon some error, to profess against that error, and teach the people better.

Whether the minister come with the company that brings the corpse from the house, or whether he meet them or receive them at the burial-place, is to be left to his own discretion. But while he is with them, let him gravely discourse of man's mortality, and the useful truths and duties thence to be inferred. And either at the grave, or in the reading-place, or pulpit, by way of sermon, according to his discretion, let him (at least, if it be desired) instruct and exhort the people concerning death, and the life to come, and their necessary preparation : seeing the spectacle of mortality, and the season of mourning, do tend to prepare men for a sober, considerate entertainment of such instructions. And he may read such Scriptures as may mind them of death, resurrection, and eternal life ; as 1 Cor. xv. or from verse 10 to the end ; and Job i. 21, and xix. 25, 26, 27 ; John xi. 25, 26, and v. 28, 29. And his prayer shall be suited to the occasion.

* The words, any of, appear for the first time in Calamy.—P. H.

Whenever the rain, snow, or coldness of the season, make it unhealthful to the minister or people to stand out of doors, at least then let the reading, exhortation, and prayers, be used within the church.

Of Extraordinary Days of Humiliation, and Thanksgiving ; and Anniversary Festivals.

WHEN great afflictions lie upon the Church, or any special part or members of it ; or when any great sins have been committed among them ; it is meet that in public, by fasting and prayer, we humble ourselves before the Lord, for the averting of his displeasure. And, on such occasions, it is the pastor's duty to confess his own and the people's sins, with penitence and tenderness of heart : and, by his doctrine and exhortation, to endeavour effectually to bring the people to the sight and sense of their sin, and the deserts of it ; and to a firm resolution of better obedience for the time to come, being importunate with God in prayer for pardon and renewed grace.

Upon the receipt of great and extraordinary mercies, the Church (having opportunity) is to assemble for public thanksgiving unto God ; and the minister to stir up the people to a lively sense of the greatness of those mercies, and joyfully to celebrate the praises of God, the author of them. And it is not unmeet on these days to express our joy in feasting, and outward signs of mirth, provided they be used moderately, spiritually, and inoffensively, and not to gratify our sensual desires ; and that we relieve the poor in their necessities, (which also, on days of humiliation, and other seasons, we must not forget.) The occasions of such days of humiliation and thanksgiving being so various, as cannot be well suited by any standing forms, the minister is to apply himself to the respective duties, suitable to the particular occasions.

Though it be not unlawful or unmeet to keep anniversary commemoration, by festivals, of some great and notable mercies to the church or state, the memory whereof should be transmitted to posterity ; nor to give any persons their due honour, who have been the instruments thereof : yet, because the festivals of the Church's institution now observed are much abused, and many sober, godly persons (ministers and others) are unsatisfied of the lawfulness of the celebrating them as holidays, let the abuse be restrained ; and let not the religious observation of those days, by public worship, be forced upon any that are thus unsatisfied, provided they forbear all offensive behaviour thereupon.

*Of Prayer and Thanksgiving for particular

BESIDES the petitions that are put up for all in such distresses, in the general prayer, it is meet that persons in dangerous sickness, or other great affliction of body or mind, and women that are near the time of child-bearing, (when they desire it,) shall be particularly recommended to God in the public prayers of the Church: because all the members constitute one body, and must have the same care one for another, as suffering all with one that suffereth, and rejoicing all with one that is honoured. And the effectual fervent prayer of the righteous, especially of the whole congregation, availeth much with God. But because diseases, distresses, and grief of mind, are so various, that no forms that are particular can suit them all; and because every minister should be able to suit his prayers to such various necessities of the people: we desire that it may be left to his discretion to pray for such, according to their several cases, before or after sermon. But we desire that, except in case of sudden necessity, they may send in their bills of request to him the night before; that he may consider of their cases, and may publish only such, and in such expressions, as in prudence he shall judge meet for the ears of the assembly.

In the more ordinary cases of persons in sickness, danger, and distress, and that are delivered from them, these following prayers may be used, or such like.

A Prayer for the Sick, that is in hopes of recovery.

transgression, to great and multiplied sorrows, and particularly in sorrow to bring forth children ; yet grantest preservation and relief, for the propagation of mankind : be merciful to this thy servant ; be near her with thy present help in the needful time of trouble ; and though in travail she hath sorrow, give her strength to bring forth. Being delivered, let her remember no more the anguish, for joy that a child is born into the world. Bless her in the fruit of her body ; and, being safely delivered, let her return thee hearty thanks, and devote it, and the rest of her life, to thy service, through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Of Pastoral Discipline, Public Confession, Absolu-tion, and Exclusion from the Holy Communion of the Church.

THE recital of the curses are said, in the Book of Common Prayer, to be instead of the godly discipline of the primitive Church, (till it can be restored again, which is much to be wished ;) which is the putting of notorious sinners to open penitence. His Majesty's Declaration concerning Ecclesiastical Affairs determineth that all public diligence be used for the instruction and reformation of scandalous offenders ; whom the minister shall not suffer to partake of the Lord's Table until they have openly declared themselves to have truly repented and amended their former naughty lives, provided there be place for due appeals to superior powers.

And the law of Christ commandeth, If thy Matt. xviii. 15, brother trespass against thee, go and 16, 17. tell him his faults between him and thee alone : if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother ; but if he will not hear thee, then take to thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established :
and if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church : but if he shall neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man, or as a publican. And it is the office of the pastors of the several congregations, not only to teach the people in general, and guide them in the celebration of the public worship, but also to oversee them, and watch over each member of their flock particularly ; to preserve them from errors, heresies, divisions, and other sins ; defending the truth, confuting gainsayers and seducers, instructing the ignorant, exciting the negligent, encouraging the despondent, comforting the afflicted, confirming the weak, rebuking and admonishing the disorderly and scandalous, and directing all according to their needs in the matters of their salvation. And the people in such needs should have ordinary recourse to them, as the officers of Christ, for guidance, and resolution of their doubts, and for assistance in making their salvation sure, and in proving, maintaining, or restoring the peace of their consciences, and spiritual comfort.

If, therefore, any member of the church be a scandalous sinner, and the crime be either notorious or fully proved ; let the pastor admonish him, and set before him the particular command of God which he transgresseth, the supreme authority of God which he despiseth, the promises and mercies which he treadeth under foot, and the curse and dreadful condemnation which he draweth upon himself. Let this be done with great compassion and tender love to the offender's soul, and with gravity, reverent and serious importunity, as becometh men employed on the behalf of God, for the saving of a soul: and yet with judgment, and cautelous prudence, not taking that for sin which is no sin, nor that for a gross and scandalous sin which is but an ordinary human frailty; not dealing as unreverently with a superior as with an inferior; not making that public which should be concealed, nor reproving before others when it should be done more secretly, nor speaking unseasonably to those who through drink or passion are incapable of the benefit; nor yet offending by bashfulness, or the fear of man, or lukewarmness, negligence, or slighting over great offences, on the other extreme.

Prudence also requireth them to be cautelous of overmeddling where the magistrate's honour or concernment, or the church's unity or peace, or the reputation of others, or the interest of their ministry, requireth them to forbear.

These cautions observed, if the scandalous offender continue impenitent, or unreformed, after due admonitions and patience, let the pastor in the congregation, when he is present, rebuke him before all, that the church may sufficiently disown the crime, and others may see the odiousness and danger of the sin. But let this also be with the love, and seriousness, and prudence before mentioned.

If the offender in obstinacy will not be there, the pastor may open the crime before the congregation: and present or absent, (in case he remain impenitent, if the case will bear so long a delay,) it is convenient that the pastor publicly pray for his conviction and repentance, that he may be saved.

And this he may do one, or two, or three, or more days, as the nature of the case and prudence shall direct him.

If, during these means for his recovery, (after the proof of the crime,) there be a communion of the church in the Lord's Supper, let the pastor require him to forbear, and not suffer him to partake of the Lord's Table.

If yet the offender remain impenitent, let the pastor openly declare him unmeet for the communion of the church, and require him to abstain from it, and require the church to avoid communion with him. And let him bind him by the denunciations of the threatenings of God against the impenitent.

But before this is done, let no necessary consultation with other pastors, or concurrence of the church, be neglected : and after let there be place for due appeals, and let ministers consent to give account when they are accused of mal-administration.

But if, after private admonition, (while the offence is such as requireth not public confession,) the sinner be penitent, let the minister privately apply to his consolation the promises of the Gospel, with such cautelous prudence as is most suitable to his condition.

And if he repent not till after public admonition, or that the scandal be so great and notorious as that a public confession is necessary ; let him, at a seasonable time appointed by the pastor, with remorse of conscience and true contrition, confess his sin before the congregation, and heartily lament it, and clear the honour of his Christian profession, which he had stained ; and crave the prayers of the church to God for pardon and reconciliation through Christ, and also crave the ministerial absolution and restoration to the communion of the church, and profess his resolution to do so no more ; but to live in new obedience to God, desiring also their prayers for corroborating and preserving grace.

It is only a credible profession of repentance that is to be accepted by the church.

The foregoing cautions must be carefully observed in such confessions, that they be not made to the injuring of the magistrate, or of the church, or of the reputation of others ; or of the life, estate, or liberty of the offender ; or to any other shame than is necessary to the manifesting of his repentance, and the clearing of his profession, and the righting of any that he hath wronged, and the honour and preservation of the church.

When he hath made a credible profession of repentance, it is the pastor's duty ministerially to declare him pardoned by Christ, but in conditional terms ; (if his repentance be sincere :) and to absolve him from the censure of non-communication with the church, if he was under such a censure before his penitence ; and to declare him meet for their communion, and to encourage him to come, and require the church to entertain him into their communion with gladness, and not upbraid him with his fall, but rejoice in his recovery, and endeavour his confirmation and preservation for the time to come. And it is his duty accordingly to admit him to communion, and theirs to have loving communion with him : all which the penitent person must believingly, lovingly, and joyfully receive. But if any, by notorious perfidiousness, or frequent covenant-breaking, have forfeited the credit of their words, or have long continued in the sin which they do confess, so that their forsaking it hath no proof ; the church then must have testimony of the actual reformation of such as these, before they may take their professions and promises as credible. Yet here the difference of persons and offences is so great, that this is to be much left to the prudence of pastors that are present, and acquainted with the persons and circumstances of the case. In the transacting of all this, these following forms, to be varied as the variety of cases do require, may be made use of.

A Form of Public Admonition to the Impenitent.

The sin may be named and aggravated, when it is convenient. A. B. you are convict of gross and scandalous sin ; you have been admonished, and entreated to repent. The promises of mercies to the penitent, and the threatenings of God against the impenitent, have not been concealed from you. We have waited in hope for your repentance, as having compassion on your soul, and desiring your salvation ; but we must say with grief, you have hitherto disappointed us. We are certain, from the word of God, that you must be penitent, if ever you will be pardoned ; and that except you repent, you shall everlastingly perish. To acquaint you publicly with this, and yet here to offer you mercy from the Lord, is the next duty laid upon us for your recovery. O ! blame us not, if, knowing the terrors of the Lord, we thus persuade you, and are loath to leave you in the power of Satan, and loath to see you cast out into perdition, and that your blood should be required at our hands, as not having discharged our duty to prevent it.

Be it known unto you, therefore, that it is the God of heaven and earth, the great, the jealous, and the terrible God, whose laws you have broken, and whose authority you despise. You refuse his government, who is coming with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly of their ungodly deeds and speeches : who hath told us that evil shall not dwell with him : the foolish shall not stand in his sight ; he hateth all workers of iniquity : the ungodly shall not stand when you must bear with the pains of hell from God, that now can scarce endure to be thus openly and plainly warned of it ? If we, to please you, should be silent and betray you, do you think the God of heaven will fear or flatter you, or be unjust to please a

Will James v. 9. sin go then with you for as light a matter as it doth now ? Will you then deny it ; or will you stand to all the reasonings or excuses, by which you would now extenuate or cover it ? Will you defend it as your friend, and be angry with ministers and reprovers as your enemies ? Or will you not mourn at last, with weeping and gnashing of teeth, and say, How have I hated instruction, Prov. v. 11, 12, and my heart despised reproof ! and 13. have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me ! O that you were wise, that you Deut. xxxii. 29. understood this, and that you would consider your latter end ! Believe God's wrath before you feel it : be convinced by the word and servants of the Lord, before you are confounded by the dreadfulfulness of his Majesty. Yet there is hope : but shortly there will be none, if you neglect it. Yet if you confess Prov. xxviii. 13. and forsake your sins, you shall have mercy ; but if you cover them, you shall not prosper : Prov. xxix. 1. and if, being oft reprov'd, you harden your neck, you shall suddenly be destroyed, and that Gal. vi. 7. without remedy. Be not deceived, God is not mocked : whatsoever you sow, that shall you also reap. O man ! you know not what it is to deal with an offended and revenging God : nor Matt. vii. 23 ; what it is to hear Christ say, Depart xxv. 41. from me, ye workers of iniquity, I never knew you ; depart from me, ye wicked, into everlasting fire. You know not what it is to be shut out of heaven, and concluded under utter desperation, and in hell to look back upon this obstinate impenitence, and rejecting of the mercy that would have saved you ; and there to have conscience telling you for ever what it is that you have done. Did you not know what this is, could you think a penitent confessing and forsaking your sin to be a condition too hard for the preventing of such a doleful state ? O no ! You know not what a case you are casting your immortal soul into. The Lord give you repentance, that you may never know it by experience ! To prevent this, is our business with you. We delight not to displease or shame you. But God hath told us, that if Jas. v. 20. any do err from the truth, and one convert him, let him know that he which converteth a sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins. I do, therefore, by the command and in the name of Jesus Christ, require and beseech you, that you do, without any more delay, confess your sins, and heartily bewail them, and beg pardon for them, and resolve and promise by the help of God to do so no more. And bless God that you have an Advocate 1 John i. 7, 9; with the Father, Jesus Christ the right- ii. 1, 2.eous, whose blood will cleanse you from your sins, if you penitently confess them; and that mercy may be yet had on so easy terms. If you had any sense of your sin and misery, or any sense of the dishonour done to God, or of the wrong that you have done to others, and of the usefulness of your penitent confession and amendment to the reparation of all these, you would cast yourself in the dust, in shame and grief, before the Lord, and before the Church. To day, therefore, if you will Psal. xciv. 8, 12; hear his voice, harden not your heart; lxxxii. 11, 12.

lest God forsake you, and give you over unto your own heart's lust, to walk in your own counsels, and resolve in his wrath you shall never enter into his rest. And then, God and this congregation will be witnesses that you were warned; and your blood will be upon your own head. But if, in penitent confession, you flee to Christ, and loathe yourself for your iniquities, and heartily forsake them, I have authority to promise you free forgiveness, and that your iniquity shall not be your ruin.

to have a name or place among thy servants. I do here declare mine iniquity, and am sorry for my sins : they are gone over my head as a heavy burden ; they are too heavy for me, they take hold upon me. I am ashamed, as unworthy to look up towards heaven : but my hope is in the blood and grace of Christ, who made his life a sacrifice for sin, and came to seek and save that which was lost ; whose grace aboundeth where sin hath abounded. The Lord be merciful to me a sinner ! I humbly beg of the congregation that they will earnestly pray that God would wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sins ; that he will forgive them, and blot them out, and hide his face from them, and remember them no more : that he will not cast me away from his presence, nor forsake me as I have forsaken him, nor deal with me according to my deserts ; but that he will create in me a clean heart, and renew a right spirit in me, and grant me the joy of his salvation. And I beg pardon of the Church, and all that I have wronged ; and resolve, by the grace of God, to do so no more : but to walk more watchfully, as before the Lord. And I desire all that are ungodly, that they think never the worse of the laws, or ways, or servants of the Lord, for my misdoings : for if I had been ruled by God, and by his servants, I had never done as I have done. There is nothing in religion that befriendeth sin ; there is nothing so contrary to it, as God and his holy laws, which I should have obeyed. Rather let all take warning by me, and avoid temptations, and live not carelessly, and hearken not to the inclinations or reasonings of the flesh, nor trust (not) their weak and sinful hearts ; but live in godly fear and watchfulness, and keep under the flesh, and keep close to God, and hearken to the faithful counsel of his servants. And I intreat your prayers* to God, that I may be strengthened by his grace, that I may sin thus no more, lest worse befall me.

 he will not hear us, we shall then take with us one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established ; and if we have earnestly prayed, and patiently waited for his repentance; but we have not prevailed. But, after all, he continueth impenitent, and will not be persuaded to confess and forsake his sin. We do, therefore, according to these laws of Christ, declare him unmeet for the communion of the Church, and reject him from it: requiring him to forbear it, and requiring you to avoid him: and we leave him bound to the judgment of the Lord, unless his true repentance shall prevent it.

A Form of Absolution, and Reception of the Penitent.

THOUGH you have greatly sinned against the Lord, and against his Church, and your own soul; yet, seeing you humble yourself before him, and penitently flee to Christ for mercy, resolving to do so no more, hear now the glad tidings of salvation, which I am commanded to declare unto you. If any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins. If we confess our sins, he is faithful to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Seek the

And I exhort and charge you, that you believingly and thankfully accept this great, unspeakable mercy; and that you watch more carefully for the time to come, and avoid temptations, and subdue the flesh, and accept reproofs, and see that you return not to your vomit, or to wallow again in the mire when you are washed: but obey the Spirit, and keep close to God in the means of your preservation.

A Form of Thanksgiving, or Prayer, for the Restored Penitent.

O most merciful Father, we thank thee that thou hast brought us under so gracious a covenant, as not only to pardon the sins of our unregenerate state, but also, upon our penitent confession and return, to cleanse us from all our unrighteousness, and pardon our falls by the blood of Christ; and to restore our souls, and lead us again in the paths of righteousness, and command thy servants to receive us. We thank thee that thou hast thus restored this thy servant, giving him repentance and remission of sin; Rom. iii. 25. 1 John i. 9; ii. 1, 2. Psal. xxiii. 3; ciii. 3. Matt. ix. 2. Rom. v. 1, 2, 3.
